

Google Play Music: Rule of Thirds

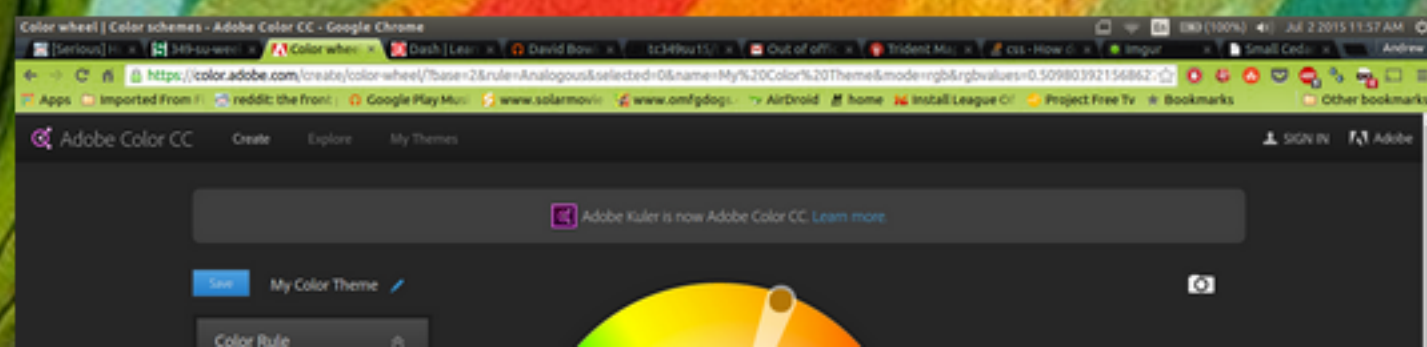

The Google Play Music Web Page use the rule of three throughout the design such as multiples of three and only allowing three rows to be visible at once. Also with the song queue two outside columns of information with a center column that is empty for empty's sake.

Imgur; Affordance

Imgur does one thing really well. Making it easy and natural to download images. The drag and drop feature that everyone is comfortable with make this task a breeze and enjoyable.
